

Miller, Robert L. "Bob" - MWO SSM CD, RCAF & CAF (RET.) - 1928-2007 - Passed away peacefully at home after a courageous battle with leukemia. Born in Clarence West, Nova Scotia on 24 May 1928. Son of Ray Lockhart and Barbara (Hartow) Miller, married Lorna Ruth Guest in 1949. Lovingly remembered by his wife, Lorna and five children, Mavis (Keith), Steve (Mary Ellen), Nancy (Stan), James (Lynn), Janice (Andy), and nine grandchildren, Andrea, Darren, Steph, Allie, Alicia, Hunter, Tyler, Brandon and Kyle. Dear brother to Charles, Jean, Ann and Margaret.

Bob and Lorna were transferred overseas twice, 1951 to Odiham, England and 1960 to Marville, France. He served with distinction in the Royal Canadian Air Force and retired from the military in 1973. He held Commercial Pilots' and Aircraft Maintenance Engineer Licenses which he applied following his military retirement. He was employed by DeHavilland Aircraft in Downsview, Ontario as a Production Test Flight Supervisor. Following this, he worked for nine pleasant years at the former CKBB radio in Barrie.

Bob will always be remembered as a quiet, strong and dignified gentleman. Bob's passion for aviation and his love of flying were evident throughout his life. He will be greatly missed and fondly remembered by family and friends.
