

Gallery - 2009

Moving the Red Knight to its new home at Base Borden

"Red Knight" T-33 is removed by crane from old 441 Wing quarters on 20 Feb 2009

next

"Red Knight" T-33 is removed by crane from old 441 Wing quarters on 20 Feb 2009

"Red Knight" T-33 is removed by crane from old 441 Wing quarters on 20 Feb 2009

next

21 Feb 2009, Flatbed with aircraft on board proceeds through Angus, with police escort.
Tail has been removed from aircraft to reduce width of load and is transported on a separate trailer

Convoy proceeds through north gate at CFB Borden as the snow begins to fall.

next

Convoy proceeds through north gate at CFB Borden as the snow begins to fall.

next

Not all fun and games--negotiating a tight turn at Borden

next

Reunited with its tail, the Red Knight is placed on mattresses for support awaiting installation on its new pedestal.

next

The Red Knight in its new home next to the Air Command Academy at Borden

next

The Red Knight in its new home next to the Air Command Academy at Borden

next

The Red Knight in its new home next to the Air Command Academy at Borden

next